

FRANCE PROTECTS JEWS, SAYS PICHON

PARIS, July 9.—Special treaties and the League of Nations will protect minority peoples, especially Jews, in the countries of eastern Europe, Stephen Pichon, French foreign minister, said in the reply he made to a communication from a group of deputies.

The deputies, who represented various parties, had expressed deep feeling over reports of pogroms, massacres, boycotts and other persecution of Jews in eastern Europe.

The letter concluded by asking Pichon officially to make known the attitude of France in the peace conference in favor of the Jews.

In replying Pichon said the French government took the initiative at the beginning of the conference to insure thorough examination of Jewish questions by the peace delegates.

NEW "ALL STATES" MEETING TONIGHT

The second of the "All States" evenings will be held in the Central High School auditorium, Thirteenth and Clifton streets northwest, at 8:15 o'clock tonight. The public is invited to attend.

The first of the meetings was held at Central High School last night, representatives from every State in the Union being present. Among the speakers were Senator Watson of Kansas, Nathan Williams, president of the All States Society, and Miss Cecil B. Norton, general secretary of community centers.

Tonight's meeting will be the last to be held by the society until the coming winter, when each State is to be given its own night. Members of Congress from each State will be asked to attend their respective State meetings and pageants representing the industries of the State will be staged.

Ends In State Parade.

The program concluded with a picturesque "March of the States" in which three young ladies from each State took part.

An organ recital by Miss Edith Athey, the singing of the national anthem by a chorus under the direction of Albert W. Harned, and a group of songs by Miss Gretchen Hood, accompanied by Miss Athey, made up the musical program.

"The American Creed" was recited by the author, William Tyler Page, and Charles B. Hanford recited "The Star-Spangled Banner."

A tableau, "Little America," was presented by Miss Lenora Mary De Grange, assisted by a group of soldiers and members of the "Little players."

The committee on arrangements was under charge of Col. J. William De Grange.

Among the representatives from the States was Miss Estelle Murray, representing the voteless District of Columbia.

HYATTSVILLE NEWS

Glendale and Seabrook Road to Be Repaired—State Guard To Be Reorganized.

HYATTSVILLE, Md., July 9.—At a meeting of the Good Roads Association last night in the school house at Glendale plans were formulated for repairing the Glendale and Seabrook road. The county commissioners have appropriated $300 toward this work, and the citizens of the community have contributed a like amount. Two hundred dollars have been appropriated for the construction of a concrete culvert. The association has been directed to take full charge of the work.

It is announced that steps soon will be taken to reorganize the National Guard of Maryland. A new armory is practically completed in Hyattsville, and it is expected that a company will be organized here. Company F, former local national guard outfit, was regarded as the crack company of the State. It held the honor of being the first national guard company to report its readiness for service at the outbreak of the trouble on the Mexican border.

The local Boy Scout troop is soliciting funds for the purchase of a motor boat.

The Vigor of Swift & Company Continues Only Because of Service

The only "control" over the packing industry is the "control" that gathers about the ability to do a necessary job in the best way.

Swift & Company has reached a leading place in the industry because the size and character of the job of providing a nation's meat require the wide and thorough organization, the experience and devotion to duty, found in an institution like Swift & Company.

The moment Swift & Company ceases to perform its functions of usefulness with the greatest efficiency and satisfaction to the people, its position in the industry will vanish.

Swift & Company service is performed at a profit of a fraction of a cent per pound.
